

ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE
WOMEN OF ACHIEVEMENT:

Johnson Publishing Co. Inc. President and CEO Linda Johnson Rice accepts the Anti-Defamation League's (ADL) Women of Achievement Award from Neal Zucker, Corporate Cleaning Services president, during the recent ADL Thirteenth Annual Women of Achievement Awards Dinner in the Imperial Ballroom of the Fairmont Chicago Hotel. Some 600 guests paid tribute to Mrs. Rice and co-honorees, Kathy Hopinkah Hannan, Midwest Managing Partner of Tax Services, KPMG LLP; Frances H. Krasnow, partner, Holland & Knight LLP; and Carmen Velásquez, founder, Alivio Medical Center. "As career and community leaders, each of these women set distinguished standards to be emulated," said ADL National Director Abraham H. Foxman. Below, Mrs. Rice is joined during the gala event by (l-r) Dinner co-chair Ellen Rozelle McGhee (Clarity Partners, LLC), fellow honorees Hannan, Krasnow and Velásquez, and Dinner co-chair Allegra Biery (Northern Trust). Founded in Chicago in 1913, the ADL is the world's leading organization that fights anti-Semitism through programs and services that counteract hatred, prejudice and bigotry.

Johnson Publishing Co. Inc. President and CEO Linda Johnson Rice accepts the Anti-Defamation League's (ADL) Women of Achievement Award from Neal Zucker, Corporate Cleaning Services president, during the recent ADL Thirteenth Annual Women of Achievement Awards Dinner in the Imperial Ballroom of the Fairmont Chicago Hotel. Some 600 guests paid tribute to Mrs. Rice and co-honorees, Kathy Hopinkah Hannan, Midwest Managing Partner of Tax Services, KPMG LLP; Frances H. Krasnow, partner, Holland & Knight LLP; and Carmen Velásquez, founder, Alivio Medical Center. "As career and community leaders, each of these women set distinguished standards to be emulated," said ADL National Director Abraham H. Foxman. Below, Mrs. Rice is joined during the gala event by (l-r) Dinner co-chair Ellen Rozelle McGhee (Clarity Partners, LLC), fellow honorees Hannan, Krasnow and Velásquez, and Dinner co-chair Allegra Biery (Northern Trust). Founded in Chicago in 1913, the ADL is the world's leading organization that fights anti-Semitism through programs and services that counteract hatred, prejudice and bigotry.

